THEBEAUTYTUTOR

In 2006 Sarah Donges created The Beauty Tutor. The aim of the business is to make you look and feel fabulous. With this in mind Sarah and her gorgeous team of tutors have created fantastic packages that cater for individuals or groups.

GIVE YOUR HAIR A TREAT...MENT

You may have seen it everywhere and until recently I was dubious about it's qualities. Let me tell you, I am a total convert! Moroccan Oil Treatment is an all in one product, it's a finishing, styling and shine product as well as a treatment as it has loads of great ingredients, Argan Oil, Vitamins A, E and F (Omega 6), as well as phenols and tocopherols to nourish the hair and scalp. It is for all hair types and doesn't leave your hair oily or heavy. Personally, I use it in wet hair and then either let it dry naturally or blow dry and style. MoroccanOil Treatment, $52.50

THE FOUNDATION, THAT'S NOT

If you only have a few minutes for your morning beauty regime then you need a product that is quick to apply and fuss free.

No Foundation, Foundation is a cross between a liquid foundation and a tinted moisturiser. It makes your skin look dewy and flawless and with SPF30 added it really a winner in my books! You only need a small amount to cover your face, and the 30ml container lasts a long time. Perricone MD, No Foundation Foundation 30ml, $98

HARD CORE NAILS

Shellac Nails are a recent welcome addition to the Australian market. I first tried it at Fashion Week in Sydney recently and was so taken by it that I have been scouting it out in nail salons. For years I have either given up on nail polish or accepted the fact that it only lasts one or two days before it chips or loses it's appeal. Shellac Nails lasts around 14 days and is incredibly strong, doesn't scratch, smudge, lose its luster or colour. Shellac Nails need to be applied by a professional as it requires UV light to set it. Packages include make up and hair lessons, personal shopping, wardrobe detox and colour sessions. All personal shopping is in Sydney or Melbourne but, as long as you're happy to pay for travel, the other packages can be in your home, wherever that may be!
